BLOODMOBILE HERE TODAY . . . IT WILL BE IN THE MVR AUDITORIUM AFTER ALL

Today's and tomorrow's—Bloodmobile visit will be in the Mountain View Road Auditorium after all. (Friday's News stated that it would be held in the factory due to a scheduling problem . . . but the problem has been resolved.)

Even if you didn't sign a pledge card, why not plan to be a "walk in" donor? The need for blood is really great in the area at this time of year.

Hours today are 11 AM - 5 PM, and on tomorrow 10 AM - 4 PM. (At the Timberlake "Mini-Van" tomorrow: 11:45 AM - 7:00 PM.)

TODAY'S THE DEADLINE FOR ADS FOR NEXT MONDAY'S "TRADING POST" . . . . .

The new schedule for employee publications as announced Friday goes into effect next with a "Trading Post" publication on Mondays and the "GE News" on Thursdays.

Also—as announced—the deadline for submitting ads to the Trading Post will be 4 PM on Wednesday of the preceding week. Any ads received after that time will be held until the next Trading Post a week later.

DO YOU HAVE ARTS AND CRAFTS
FOR THE 1983 GEERA PICNIC?

Anyone interested in displaying their arts and crafts this year at the annual picnic is urged to do so. We will be expecting some of the same ones we had last year, and even more, with cake decorating being part of arts and crafts this year. We have also made some additions this year, such as flower arrangements and doll making. Prizes will not be given this year. The only way prizes could be given would be to give everyone a prize. . . . everything was so great, there was no way to say which was better than the next.

Sales will be permitted provided the item sold is new and handmade.

Plan to display what you do best. You must bring your own setups.

Those who are interested, please send a note to Marie Reynolds, FAB or Frances Sensabaugh, FAB. A place will be reserved for you or your family.
